

Could Tuition Hikes Force More Law Grads Onto BigLaw Path?

Friday, September 23, 2022

Josephine Bahn was quoted in an article published by Law360, “Could Tuition Hikes Force More Law Grads Onto BigLaw Path?” This article discusses the impact of escalating law school tuition prices on students and the competition for BigLaw jobs. “It is basically, if not entirely, it’s a home that you’re mortgaging, and you’re betting your entire career and much of your adult life, frankly, on paying it off,” said Jo. “I can count on two fingers the number of people that I know that were successful in getting public service loan forgiveness, and I can count on many more fingers and toes [the] people that left the government to go in-house somewhere else.”
