Account Executive, Strategic Communications

lcamp@cozen.com | (202) 280-6454

Lauren is an account executive for Cozen O'Connor Public Strategies' strategic communications practice.

Before joining the firm, Lauren spent nearly five years in communications on Capitol Hill, most recently serving as press secretary for the U.S. House Committee on Oversight and Accountability under Chairman James Comer (KY) and previously, as deputy press secretary for the U.S. House Committee on Ways and Means under Ranking Member Kevin Brady (TX). While working in the U.S. House of Representatives, Lauren completed her master's in public relations and corporate communications from Georgetown University in Washington, D.C.

A Michigan native, Lauren earned her Bachelor of Arts in public policy, with a focus in international trade policy, and a minor in German from the University of Michigan's Gerald R. Ford School of Public Policy in Ann Arbor, Michigan.
