

Old, Unused, and 'Twisty' — Meet the Obscure NY Election-Conspiracy Law That Just Might Get Trump Convicted

Saturday, April 27, 2024

Jerry Goldfeder was quoted in a Business Insider article discussing whether prosecutors have to prove Trump is guilty of violating FECA, state tax law, and falsifying business records. "They only have to prove he intended to commit these underlying crimes," said Jerry. "And the testimony so far demonstrates that Trump intended to pursue this catch-and-kill scheme and to falsify business records to cover it up — and did so to influence the election."
