Wage and hour compliance continues to be extremely challenging for California employers. The ongoing pandemic further complicates the compliance landscape. Non-compliance can expose companies to costly individuals, Private Attorneys General Act (PAGA), and class action claims. Join us as we review recent developments that impact the workplace and discuss best practices to protect against these very expensive lawsuits. We will also touch on recent developments related to the California OSHA ETS. CLE is approved in PA, NY, TX, IL, NV, and CA.

MN CLE has been applied for approval.
