

Ray Console on Decluttering 55+ Podcast: Estate Planning

Tuesday, July 30, 2024

Ray Console led a conversation designed to take the confusion and worry out of writing a will on a new video podcast, "Decluttering 55+ with Michelle Passoff." He also discussed the importance of assigning health care and financial surrogates who can make medical and financial decisions when the client cannot.

Decluttering 55+ features speakers who discuss "next level" clutter of all kinds, with Baby Boomers as the primary audience. Topics include best health practices, digital decluttering, memoir writing, relationships, retirement plans, funeral plans, and financial and legal planning.
