Ken Fisher will participate in the panel discussion "A Unique Model for Community/City Investment and Implementation: the Gowanus (Brooklyn) Experience" at the Urban Land Institute's Fall Meeting. The panel will review the Gowanus Neighborhood Rezoning Plan and the 56 Points of Agreement, as well as community-designed investments in housing, infrastructure, public spaces, and small businesses. The program will analyze the unique model of oversight by the Gowanus Oversight Task Force and its role in ensuring implementation and fostering dialogue on justice, equity, and resilience in the community.
