Experience

Achieved a favorable en banc decision by the Pennsylvania Commonwealth Court on behalf of a corporate taxpayer that the client's corporate net income tax could be calculated without capping the amount the client could take on its net operating loss (NOL) carryover deduction. The Court held that the limit on NOL carryforward deductions violated the Uniformity Clause of the Pennsylvania Constitution because it results in two classifications, one for taxpayers that can completely eliminate their taxable income and another that can only limit the deduction to the extent of the limit.
