Ashley concentrates her practice on general corporate and business law matters.

Prior to joining the firm, Ashley was first a summer associate and, later, a corporate associate with a multinational Am Law 100 firm headquartered in Chicago where she represented clients in several six-figure transactions.

Ashley is a graduate of Harvard Law School, where she was co-managing editor of the Harvard Journal of Sports & Entertainment Law. During law school, Ashley interned with the San Francisco 49ers, where she conducted legal research and assisted with reviewing and drafting employment, sponsorship, licensing, and vendor agreements. Before attending law school, Ashley served with Teach for America in Oakland, California, where she taught middle school math and science to beginning English speakers. She earned her undergraduate degree, magna cum laude, from the University of Miami.

Experience

Represented Spell Capital Partners, a private equity firm, in its acquisition of the operating and real estate assets of All Star Corrugated.

Represented SourcEdge Solutions, a national technology solutions provider of claims systems modernization services, in its sale to private equity-backed Alivia Analytics, a leading AI-based healthcare payment integrity platform for fraud, waste, and abuse.

Represented a financial sponsor in its platform acquisition of a meal delivery company providing meals to Medicare waiver recipients and other eligible populations.

Represented private equity-backed PES Benefits, a solutions provider to the employee benefits technology, administration, education, and virtual care industries in its acquisition of nRoll Tech, a national benefits technology company.

Represented Veritable LP, an owner-operated investment firm and multi-family office, in its $350 million acquisition by Pathstone, a wealth management firm serving multigenerational families, single-family offices, and foundations and endowments. The team led the auction process, sale, negotiation, and documentation.

Represented the court-appointed trustee for the bankruptcy estate of pharmaceutical company Akorn Holding Company LLC in connection with establishing and conducting an expedited auction sale process for substantially all of its assets. At the conclusion of the auction, the aggregate purchase price agreed to be paid by the successful purchasers was approximately $309 million. We then negotiated 13 individual Asset Purchase Agreements and obtained the entry from the bankruptcy court of 21 individual sale orders approving the sales of the purchased assets, all of which we successfully closed within a 45-day period.

Represented Clemson Engineering Hydraulics, Inc. in its sale to Verdantas LLC, an engineering and environmental consulting provider backed by RTC Partners, a Miami-based growth equity firm.
