

Janice Sued Agresti Named to Labor Power Players

Tuesday, March 14, 2023

Janice Sued Agresti, an associate in Cozen O'Connor's Labor & Employment Department, has been named a 2023 Labor Power Player by Politics NY. The 2023 Labor Power Players list honors elected and appointed officials, union presidents and business managers, labor lawyers, higher education professionals, and private industry executives who have supported and served New York's workforce over the past year.

Janice represents employers in high-stakes matters and high-profile employment litigation, including trade secrets and employee mobility litigation; defending against race, sex, age, and national origin discrimination claims; and defending against whistleblower and retaliation claims. Janice is also a trusted adviser to her clients on labor and employment issues.
