

Alycen Moss Named a 2023 Recipient of the FDCC's Joseph R. Olshan Award

Friday, July 28, 2023

Alycen A. Moss, co-vice chair of the Global Insurance Department and co-chair of the firm's Property Insurance Group, has been named a 2023 recipient of the Federation of Defense & Corporate Counsel's Joseph R. Olshan Award. Each year, this award is presented by the chair of a Board Committee, Administrative Branch Committee or Project, Initiative, or Ad Hoc Committee. The award honors one whose work has made the most outstanding contribution to the advancement of the FDCC's aspirational goals.

The FDCC comprises U.S. and international peer-reviewed leaders of the civil defense, corporate legal, and insurance industries. Membership in the FDCC is limited, selective, and by nomination only, and admission requires a rigorous peer review.

Within the FDCC, Alycen is chair of the Professional Women's Forum, ex-officio chair of the FDCC Property Insurance section, and vice-chair of the Projects and Objectives Committee, Insurance Industry Institute Committee, the Bylaws & Resolutions Committee, the FedLife Committee, and the Membership Development and Retention Committee. She also sits on the Admissions Committee, and was appointed to the board of directors for the FDCC Foundation.

Alycen is co-vice chair of Cozen O'Connor's Global Insurance Department and office managing partner of the Atlanta office. She concentrates her practice in civil litigation, and she has extensive experience with matters pertaining to property, casualty, commercial general liability, and trucking issues. She also regularly litigates civil and commercial matters pertaining to transportation and logistics, as well as mass and complex torts and class actions. Alycen has also litigated complex cases involving environmental and toxic exposures, including asbestos, diacetyl, mold, and chemical exposures.
