

Workers who feel unsafe returning to work can collect unemployment checks

Wednesday, March 3, 2021

David Barron spoke with FOX26 Houston about the new safety protocols that OSHA is issuing. "If those standards, for example, include masking, then it won't be optional for employers. They specifically risk being fined by OSHA if they're not following those standards," he said.

To read more of this article, click here.

Related Practice Areas

- Labor & Employment