

Long-Shot Candidates Battle to Get on State Ballots

Monday, December 18, 2023

Jerry Goldfeder was quoted in an article published by The Hill, discussing the hurdles for several outsider presidential candidates working to secure spots on various state ballots for the upcoming election. “For the candidates who have real support among voters, it costs very little to get on the ballot,” said Jerry. “All you need to do is print petitions and have your supporters circulate them to get the signatures necessary.”
