

Cozen O'Connor's Heather Marx Named to Minnesota Lawyer's Inaugural Top Women in Law List

Friday, September 8, 2023

MINNEAPOLIS, September 8, 2023 — Heather Marx, a member of Cozen O'Connor's Commercial Litigation practice and vice-chair of the firm's Trade Remedies practice, has been named by Minnesota Lawyer Magazine to its inaugural "Top Women in Law" list. She was selected based on her leadership, professionalism, accomplishments, and passion for making a difference and will be celebrated at a gala event on October 26.

The Minnesota Lawyer "2023 Top Women in Law" list celebrates the outstanding achievements of women in Minnesota's legal community, honoring exceptional educators, trailblazers, role models, and public service lawyers as well as those lawyers who have dedicated their careers to nonprofit work, private practice, and in-house counsel. These women are leaders in their practice areas and have been instrumental to their companies' success. They will all be featured in a special supplement on October 30.

Marx, who practices out of Cozen O'Connor's Minneapolis office, is vice-chair, office managing partner of Cozen O'Connor's Minneapolis office. She also serves as vice-chair of the firm's Customs, Imports & Trade Remedies practice, which is based in Minneapolis and is one of the only full-service trade practices outside the nation's coastal hubs. Marx represents corporations and individuals in customs, imports, and trade matters, corporate contractual and partnership disputes, real estate and leasing issues, and litigation related to leases and guaranties, bankruptcy adversary proceedings, commercial transactions and disputes, and issues of employment law. She also advises both domestic and international clients on strategies for foreign-based manufacture, importation, and distribution of goods and how to safeguard against anti-competitive trade barriers, regulatory systems, and trade remedies. Marx represents clients in matters before U.S. Customs and Border Protection, the U.S. Department of Commerce, the International Trade Administration, and the U.S. Trade Representative, in addition to the United States District Courts, the U.S. Court of International Trade, and the Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals.

Marx is a graduate of Gustavus Adolphus College (B.A., 1999) and Georgetown University Law Center (J.D., 2002). She is currently an adjunct professor at the University of St. Thomas Law School, where she teaches the bankruptcy litigation clinic.

Marx has been previously recognized as a "Midwest Trailblazer" by the American Lawyer Magazine, by Minnesota Law & Politics as one of its "Rising Stars" and by Minneapolis/St. Paul Magazine as one of the "Top Women Attorneys in Minnesota." For her pro bono work, she has been consistently recognized since 2016 with a North Star Lawyer distinction from the Minnesota State Bar, which recognizes Minnesota lawyers who have provided more than 50 hours of pro bono legal service to the community.

About Cozen O'Connor

Established in 1970, Cozen O'Connor has more than 925 attorneys who help clients manage risk and make better business decisions. The firm counsels clients on their most sophisticated legal matters in all areas of the law, including litigation, corporate, and regulatory law. Representing a broad array of leading global corporations and middle market companies, Cozen O'Connor services its clients' needs through 33 offices across two continents.

Related Practice Areas

- Commercial Litigation