Nicole Gill will present "Beyond Blind Justice: Understanding Bias in AI-Driven Legal Tech Solutions" at the Greater Philadelphia Chapter of the Association of Corporate Counsel Women's Summit. Nicole will discuss AI usage and how businesses and their in-house counsel must evaluate its potential benefits, risks, and rewards. She will cover current rules and laws governing AI use in the legal industry and address the ethical and legal obligations that arise. She will also explore AI tools that businesses are using, address the AI bias found in these tools, and explore ways individuals can identify and mitigate this bias.
