Jason Domark Named President-Elect of the Estate Planning Council of Greater Miami

Tuesday, June 13, 2023

MIAMI, June 13, 2023 — Jason Domark, a member of the firm's Commercial Litigation Department, has been named president-elect of the Estate Planning Council of Greater Miami. The Estate Planning Council of Greater Miami is the premier local organization for all professionals involved in the estate planning process. Since 1949, the council has conducted high quality seminars and meetings with the mission of educating its members and promoting best practices. The council also provides an active forum for networking with the most respected practitioners in the estate planning field. Jason previously served on the council's board of directors as treasurer and vice president.

Jason focuses his practice on complex commercial litigation, with an emphasis on international litigation, fiduciary litigation, and real estate-related litigation. Jason has created and managed worldwide litigation strategies for multinational corporations and individuals in disputes involving U.S., European, South American, Caribbean, and Asian jurisdictions. Jason frequently litigates fiduciary duty issues for corporations, partnerships, trusts, professionals, and other entities and individuals. Jason has also represented numerous developers, contractors, and land owners in real estate-related disputes, including construction and design issues, delay claims, turnover litigation, easement rights, and eminent domain proceedings.

About Cozen O'Connor

Established in 1970, Cozen O'Connor has over 925 attorneys who help clients manage risk and make better business decisions. The firm counsels clients on their most sophisticated legal matters in all areas of the law, including litigation, corporate, and regulatory law. Representing a broad array of leading global corporations and middle-market companies, Cozen O'Connor serves its clients' needs through 33 offices across two continents.