

Pot Legalization Still Faces Hurdles After Senate Flip

Wednesday, January 6, 2021

Patrick Martin was quoted in Law360 discussing the future of the cannabis industry now that the Senate is Democrat. "There is optimism certainly among Democratic activists [and] donors, that if Dems win these two seats there's going to be the ability for transformational change on certain issues," said Patrick. "What [this is] likely to deliver is slow, incremental change. I don't think the assumption is correct that things are going to get streamlined ... with majorities this tight," he said.
