Amanda is a passionate and strategic advocate who brings a depth of litigation experience to every matter she handles. She has experience representing a diverse range of clients, including attorneys, real estate professionals, contractors, insurance agents, and other professional clients.

Before joining the firm, Amanda practiced at a complex civil litigation firm, where she focused on professional liability, commercial disputes, and consumer litigation in both state and federal courts. Her background also includes extensive trial and courtroom experience as a criminal defense attorney, where she represented hundreds of clients and developed a strong command of courtroom advocacy.

Amanda earned her J.D. from Texas A&M University School of Law in 2020. During law school, she served as vice president of the Latinx Law Students Association and was a semi-finalist brief writer in the school's Moot Court Appellate Advocacy team. She was also a clerk for the U.S. Attorney's Office in the Southern District of Texas, Laredo Division. Amanda graduated magna cum laude from Texas A&M International University with a B.A. in History and Political Science.

Fluent in Spanish, Amanda is proud of her South Texas roots and the perspective they bring to her practice. Outside the office, she enjoys hiking, water sports, and cheering on Dallas sports teams.
