Cara is a skilled associate with experience assisting Cozen O'Connor's attorneys in a variety of matters. She was a summer associate with the firm in 2023.

Cara graduated magna cum laude from Temple University's Beasley School of Law, where she was a staff editor for Temple Law Review. During her 3L year, Cara was a member of the Federal Appellate Litigation Clinic, where she won a Section 1983 civil rights appeal that resulted in precedential Third Circuit law. She also served as a legal intern with the U.S. Attorney's Office in Washington, D.C.

After earning her undergraduate degree with honors from Pennsylvania State University, Schreyer Honors College in supply chain and information systems, Cara began her career in a Big Four accounting firm. There, she worked for four years as a management consultant on the supply chain and operations advisory team.
