

These Are Your Rights If You Don't Feel Safe At Work Without A Mask

Monday, May 17, 2021

John Ho was quoted in the Huffington Post discussing wearing a mask at work. John said many clients in the restaurant industry initially argued that forgoing masks was a business justification, because they felt masks signaled that a restaurant was dirty. “But then you flash-forward three to four months and everyone is wearing them,” he said. “That business justification no longer exists.”
