 New York, NY 10282

Date & Time

Start Date: 04/23/2018
 End Date: 04/25/2018

Barry Golob, co-chair, and Martin Pavane, vice chair of Cozen O'Connor's Intellectual Property department, will be speaking at this event in New York. Barry will be a moderator for the topic "The Federal Judges Speak on Paragraph IV Litigation." Martin will be a moderator for the topic "A Question of Damages: Lost Profits, Reasonable Royalties and Exceptional Findings." The Federal Judges Speak on Paragraph IV Litigation distinguished jurists with some of the liveliest Paragraph IV litigation dockets in the country will examine decision-making practices employed by the judicial system and provide sage advice for both patent holders and patent challengers. These federal judges will identify the impediments to resolving such multifaceted contests and provide you with solutions to your most unyielding Paragraph IV predicaments.

A Question of Damages: Lost Profits, Reasonable Royalties and Exceptional Findings will be focussing on assessing damages in an at-risk launch scenario, determining reasonable royalties and establishing the basis for royalty, gauging lost profits, calculating damages for exceptional findings, understanding the rationale behind the District Court's exceptional case findings, and examining mitigating factors impacting damages award.
