

Guided Journey PLUS Program Empowers Prospective Law Students Through Widener Law Commonwealth's LSAT Instruction

Tuesday, August 13, 2024

Stephanie Kennedy was quoted in a Widener University Commonwealth Law School article discussing her involvement in the Guided Journey PLUS program, which supports aspiring law students nationwide by building test-taking skills for the Law School Admissions Test. "Starting from the beginning, no one in my family had gone to college, let alone law school," said Stephanie. "I went through undergrad, a master's program, and law school while working full-time and raising my kids. I understand the sacrifices and determination it takes, and I share my story with my students to let them know that they can do it too."

She also commented on the complexities of law school and how she is committed to helping students navigate those challenges. "Law school is demanding, but our program is designed to equip students with the skills and confidence they need to navigate these complexities," said Stephanie. "By sharing my experiences and strategies, I hope to make their journey a bit smoother."

To read the full article, click here.

Related Practice Areas

- Commercial Litigation