

Trump's Own Lawyers Induce Fear, Faith at Justice Department [BLOOMBERG LAW]

Tuesday, November 19, 2024

Sarah Krissoff, a member of the firm's White Collar Defense & Investigations practice, spoke with Bloomberg Law about Donald Trump's nomination of his personal defense lawyers to lead the Justice Department in his new administration. "It makes [Department veterans'] life harder because they are so personally entwined with the president," said Sarah, who once worked with one of the nominated lawyers in their capacity as former federal prosecutors. "I think it's going to be more stressful for [the career prosecutors], but I have confidence that both of them are going to chart that course appropriately," she added.
