

OSHA Issues in the Transportation Industry: Jurisdiction, Hazard Assessment, Retaliation and Best Practices For Handling OSHA Inspections

Location

Webinar

Date & Time

Start Date: 07/26/2023

Start Time: 2:00 pm

End Time: 3:00 pm EDT

John Ho will present a webinar on the key Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) regulations that directly impact the transportation industry including jurisdiction, recognized hazards, and best practices for handling an OSHA inspection. He will provide a comprehensive overview of recent or anticipated changes to OSHA regulations in areas such as electronic recordkeeping, highlighting their potential implications on Environment, Health, and Safety (EHS) practices.

He will discuss the following:

- Potential penalties and other significant consequences for non-compliance with these regulations
- Practical pointers when dealing with OSHA during an inspection, thus, emphasizing the importance of maintaining robust EHS programs
- Retaliation claims which continue to rise across the country
