

Sean Carter Discusses Lawsuit Revealing Secret Saudi Connection to 9/11 in the New York Post

Wednesday, August 12, 2015

Sean Carter, a member of Cozen O'Connor's Commercial Litigation and Subrogation department, discussed FBI leads tying Saudi officials to the Saudi hijackers of 9/11. While the Obama administration refused to publicly release the censored 28 pages of the congressional intelligence report involving the Saudi government in the terror strike, the two investigators – former FBI agent Michael Jacobson and former Justice Department Attorney Dana Leseman who authored the secret section – will most likely be called to testify in the lawsuit brought against the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia.
