Circuit Split Cracks the Foundation of Illinois Brick:

Stephen Kerstein published the article “Circuit Split Cracks the Foundation of Illinois Brick: The Co-Conspirator Exception’s Circuit Split Exposes Need to Overturn Illinois Brick’s Indirect Purchaser Rule But Uphold Hanover Shoe” for the Industrial Organization: Regulation, Antitrust & Privatization eJournal Vol. 13, Issue No. 136. The article focuses on the Hanover Shoe v. United Shoe Machinery case, the co-conspirator exception, and an all-vertical-conspiracies interpretation. The article also provides an analysis of three potential alternatives to the current state of the law.
