

Employers are on their own after court guts Biden vaccine-or-testing mandate

Saturday, January 15, 2022

John Ho was quoted in the Philadelphia Inquirer discussing the latest on COVID-19 vaccine mandates. John said that companies can “essentially ignore” the Biden vaccine mandate, though the issue will be litigated in the lower federal courts. “It’s not over yet but employers don’t have to worry about it. So folks are left with different state and city rules.”
