

Pengelley Picked to Lead Cozen O'Connor Toronto Office

Wednesday, February 14, 2018

Toronto, February 14, 2018 — Cozen O'Connor announces Pamela D. Pengelley has been appointed to serve as the Office Managing Partner for the firm's Toronto office. Pengelley, a litigator, joined the firm in 2005. The firm's Toronto office serves clients in the areas of commercial and insurance litigation, as well as subrogation and recovery matters.

"Pam is a phenomenal asset to the firm and is poised to lead the Toronto office to continued success," Vincent R. McGuinness, Cozen O'Connor President and Managing Partner.

Pengelley focuses her practice on commercial litigation including subrogation and recovery actions, energy claims, and insurance coverage. She is also the editor of Cozen O'Connor's Canadian Subrogation and Recovery Alerts, and a contributor for Cozen O'Connor's Subrogation & Recovery Blog. Pengelley received a Bachelor of Science from the University of Toronto in 2002, graduating with high distinction and a scholarship for academic excellence. She earned her law degree from Osgoode Hall Law School in 2005, where she subsequently completed a Master of Laws. In 2003, while in the United Kingdom, she received a Certificate in International Business Law from Queens University's International Study Center.

About Cozen O'Connor

Established in 1970, Cozen O'Connor has more than 925 attorneys who help clients manage risk and make better business decisions. The firm counsels clients on their most sophisticated legal matters in all areas of the law, including litigation, corporate, and regulatory law. Representing a broad array of leading global corporations and middle market companies, Cozen O'Connor services its clients' needs through 27 offices across two continents.

###