

'Change Is Needed': Amid Protests, Law Firm Alliances With Prosecutors Draw Scrutiny

Monday, June 22, 2020

Vincent McGuinness was featured in The American Lawyer discussing Cozen O'Connor's secondment program with the Philadelphia District Attorney's Office which began in 2009. "It's symbiotic. We both benefit in many different ways," Vincent says. "It gives us, as a law firm, an enriching experience and connectivity with the District Attorney's Office. And I think for them, it gives them a contact and continuity with private practice in the city of Philadelphia."

To read the full article, click here.