

Ken Fisher Named to City & State New York's 2022 Brooklyn Power 100

New York, July 11, 2022 - Kenneth K. Fisher, a member of Cozen O'Connor's Business Law Department, was named to City & State New York's 2022 Brooklyn Power 100. The list recognizes "the borough's most politically powerful figures, including government officials, business executives, nonprofit leaders, activists, advocates and academics."

City & State highlights Fisher's work for Cozen O'Connor's political action committee and his advocacy for "the state and city to work together to prioritize replacing the dilapidated stretch of the Brooklyn-Queens Expressway."

Fisher's practice concentrates on the public realm of the metropolitan area. His experience includes real estate development, regulatory law, litigation, and investigations. He is a former New York City council member and served as founding chair of the New York City Chapter of the New York League of Conservation Voters and founding chair of the Governors Island Alliance. Fisher is chair of the Brooklyn Bar Association Committee on Government & the Public Sector. He previously served as chair of the New York City Bar Association Land Use Planning & Zoning Committee.

City & State is a media organization dedicated to covering New York's local and state politics and policy. Their in-depth, non-partisan coverage serves New York's leaders every day as a trusted guide to the issues impacting New York.
