

Law360 Names Cozen O'Connor a Pennsylvania Powerhouse

Wednesday, August 23, 2023

PHILADELPHIA, August 23, 2023 — Once again, Law360 has named Cozen O'Connor a Pennsylvania Powerhouse, honoring the litigation and transactional attorneys working in Pennsylvania. Cozen O'Connor was previously named a Pennsylvania Powerhouse in 2022, 2018, and 2014.

Bolstered by the diversity of our practice groups and aided by the clearing out of a backlog of pandemic-delayed cases, Law360 notes the firm has a “reputation as a strong firm at trial and for making deals that continue to build up its home base and home state.” In an article about why Law360 selected Cozen O'Connor, Jim Heller and Barry Boss, co-chairs of the firm's Commercial Litigation Group, discuss the firm's willingness to go to trial and how that experience has brought bigger cases and bigger clients. Suzanne Mayes, co-chair of the Business Law Department, discussed how expanding into new practice areas has allowed the firm to stay busy even during economic downturns.

Cozen O'Connor is one of five law firms named a regional powerhouse, including Lynch Carpenter LLP, Hangley Aronchick Segal Pudlin & Schiller, Buchanan Ingersoll & Rooney PC, and Blank Rome LLP.

To read more about what makes Cozen O'Connor a Pennsylvania Powerhouse, click here. (Subscription required).

Related Practice Areas

- Antitrust & Competition
- Business
- Class Actions
- Commercial Litigation
- Financial Services
- Insurance Coverage
- Labor & Employment
- Patents
- Product Liability
- Public & Project Finance
- Real Estate Litigation
- Securities Litigation & SEC Enforcement
- Technology, Privacy & Data Security