

Trump Needs Damning Evidence To Keep Big Tech Suits Alive

Friday, July 9, 2021

Michael de Leeuw was quoted in an article published by Law360 that discusses how former President Donald Trump filed three class actions on Wednesday alleging illegal social media censorship. He explained how Trump's legal team would have to prove that they're performing a service that's traditionally or exclusively provided by the government. "The main tests are just not met," Michael said.
