

Kenneth K. Fisher Named to City & State New York's Real Estate Power 50

Sunday, March 31, 2019

NEW YORK - March 31, 2019 - Kenneth K. Fisher, a member of the law firm of Cozen O'Connor was named to City & State New York's inaugural Real Estate Power 50. They highlighted how Fisher, a former Member of the New York City Council "remains in the public sphere opining about politics and policy." Additionally, City and State New York observed that Fisher has a "reputation as one of the city's go-to lawyers for zoning and land use matters." They had previously recognized him as being one of the Brooklyn Power 50.

Fisher's practice concentrates on the public realm of the metropolitan area. His experience includes real estate development, regulatory law, litigation, and investigations. He served as founding chair of the New York City Chapter of the New York League of Conservation Voters and was founding chair of the Governors Island Alliance. In 2018, he was elected to a two-year term on board of the Brooklyn Chamber of Commerce. Fisher is chair of the Brooklyn Bar Association Committee on Government & the Public Sector. He previously served as chair of the New York City Bar Association Land Use Planning & Zoning Committee and Insurance Law Committee and was a member of the Judiciary Committee.

City & State is a media organization dedicated to covering New York's local and state politics and policy. Their in-depth, non-partisan coverage serves New York's leaders every day as a trusted guide to the issues impacting New York.
