Maureen Holland will present "Title IX and Gender Identity" at the NACUA Annual Conference in Seattle, Washington.

The presentation will provide a comprehensive historical analysis of the legal developments that have shaped current policies regarding the 2024 Title IX Regulations. The presenters will assess potential future regulatory and judicial directions, and discuss practical strategies for institutional policy development that balance compliance obligations with institutional values. The presenters will also provide guidance on avoiding potential legal pitfalls, including First Amendment challenges related to compelled speech and religious freedom claims.
