

Leni Cummins Named a Real Estate & Construction Trailblazer by the National Law Journal

Thursday, April 2, 2020

New York, April 2, 2020 — Leni Cummins, a member of Cozen O'Connor's Real Estate Practice, was named a Real Estate & Construction Trailblazer by the National Law Journal. The honor recognizes leaders in the legal industry who have made an impact in the real estate and construction sectors.

Cummins has extensive experience representing both the sponsor-developers of condominiums (condos) and cooperatives (co-ops), as well as condo, co-op, and community association boards. Her work on behalf of sponsor-developers deeply informs her work on behalf of boards — and vice versa. Cummins routinely advises clients on plans for new construction and condominium conversions and has extensive experience negotiating issues pertaining to construction, development, and statutory compliance.

For more information, click here.

About Cozen O'Connor

Established in 1970, Cozen O'Connor has more than 925 attorneys who help clients manage risk and make better business decisions. The firm counsels clients on their most sophisticated legal matters in all areas of the law, including litigation, corporate, and regulatory law. Representing a broad array of leading global corporations and middle market companies, Cozen O'Connor services its clients' needs through 33 offices across two continents.

Related Practice Areas

- Condominiums & Cooperatives
- Real Estate