

'Public Health 101 failure': CDC mask decision may knock out Biden's workplace Covid crackdown

Tuesday, May 18, 2021

David Barron was quoted in Yahoo! News discussing the impact of the CDC mask-dropping guidance for those who are fully vaccinated against COVID-19 in the workplace. "The last thing employers want to do is change the policy that changed back. That's really the worst thing of all worlds. So, trying to predict what OSHA is going to do has been somewhat of a challenge," said David. "You would think that OSHA wouldn't say something different than the CDC."

To read more of this article, click here.

Related Practice Areas

- Labor & Employment