

10 Bold Predictions for Philly Politics in 2020

Saturday, January 4, 2020

Joseph Hill was quoted in a Philadelphia magazine article discussing the personalities and issues that are poised to have a dramatic impact on Philly politics and potentially turn Pennsylvania blue in arguably the most consequential presidential election in modern history in November 2020. “There are a lot of warring factions within the Democratic Party in Philadelphia and throughout the state,” says Joe. “Younger, more educated voters who are moving to cities en masse are more politically engaged post-Trump, have grown frustrated with parochial politics, and demand more activism and accountability from their elected officials.” To read more, please click here.
