Manveer is a corporate and securities lawyer who focuses on mergers and acquisitions, financings, public offerings, and corporate governance matters. He has experience assisting clients with initial and secondary prospectus offerings, reverse takeovers, private debt and equity financings, domestic and cross-border exchange listings, and regulatory compliance matters.

Manveer is dedicated to helping companies achieve their growth objectives, and his clients seek him out for his sound legal advice, methodical approach, and clear communication.

Prior to joining Cozen O'Connor, Manveer was an associate in the capital markets, securities, mergers and acquisitions practice of one of Western Canada's leading law firms. Prior to his career in law, he held government economic and business development roles and worked on inquiry commissions established by the province.

Manveer earned his J.D. from the University of Victoria and his B.A. from the University of British Columbia.
