PHILADELPHIA, December 11, 2020 — Cozen O'Connor is pleased to announce that Jonathan Hoffman, member of the firm's Family Law Group, has been elected as president of the board of the Crohn's & Colitis Foundation of America for the Philadelphia-Delaware Valley Chapter. Jonathan's term is for two years and will begin in January. The Crohn's and Colitis Foundation was founded in 1967 and is a nonprofit, volunteer-fueled organization dedicated to finding cures for Crohn's disease and ulcerative colitis, and improving the quality of life of children and adults affected by these diseases. The foundation has played a role in every major breakthrough in IBD research.

Jonathan is an experienced family law attorney handling a wide range of domestic relations matters including divorce, support, custody, equitable distribution, prenuptial/postnuptial agreements, and protection from abuse actions. His practice also consists of tax-related issues in complex support and equitable distribution matters. Jonathan is a frequent speaker and author on such topics as taxation and divorce, ethics in family law matters, divorce over 50, the judicial interview of children in custody litigation and family law practice management.
