

Food Safety: It's Not Just a Gut Feeling

Location

Austin, TX

Date & Time

Start Date: 02/01/2023

Start Time: 1:00 pm

End Time: 3:00 pm

Jonathan Toren will speak on the panel, "Food Safety: It's Not Just a Gut Feeling" at the Defense Research Institute's (DRI) 2023 Product Liability Conference.

The panel will provide a foundational understanding of disease-causing microorganisms and pathogens, including the top 5 pathogens that cause food illnesses. The speakers will discuss the main types of foodborne illnesses and the best prevention methods. In addition to the science behind these issues, the speakers will share the legal perspectives of food safety issues, and risk transfer as they relate to food safety.
