

Elizabeth Olivera Elected Secretary of the National Filipino American Lawyers Association

Tuesday, November 21, 2023

CHICAGO, November 21, 2023 — Elizabeth Olivera, an associate in the firm's Labor & Employment Department, has been elected secretary of the National Filipino American Lawyers Association (NFALA). She will serve a one-year term from 2023-2024. The NFALA is a professional network of attorneys, judges, law students, and supporters that advocate for justice, civil rights, and equal opportunities for the Filipino American community. The organization also strives to increase diverse representation in the judiciary, provide business opportunities, and enhance career development for its members.

Elizabeth's practice focuses on employment-based immigration for institutional clients and multinational corporations. She works with clients from a wide variety of industries, including technology, engineering, manufacturing, and utilities. Elizabeth assists clients in acquiring employment-based visas for key employees so they will be authorized for employment in the United States.

About Cozen O'Connor

Established in 1970, Cozen O'Connor has over 925 attorneys who help clients manage risk and make better business decisions. The firm counsels clients on their most sophisticated legal matters in all areas of the law, including litigation, corporate, and regulatory law. Representing a broad array of leading global corporations and middle market companies, Cozen O'Connor serves its clients' needs through 33 offices across two continents.

Related Practice Areas

- Immigration Policy & Strategy
- Labor & Employment