Location

Hyatt Regency Long Beach
200 South Pine Avenue
Long Beach, CA

Date & Time

Start Date: 09/14/2015
End Date: 09/18/2015

Wayne Rohde will be presenting on a panel titled "Port and Marine Terminal Policy and Legal Issues" on Thursday, September 17 of the five-day intensive training course. This course is designed to give port professionals hands-on experience and the tools necessary to excel in the industry. From overviews of marine terminal design and green terminal initiatives to tools for decision-making and effective management, this seminar covers all the essentials. The seminar, sponsored by American Association of Port Authorities (AAPA) and the National Association of Waterfront Employers (NAWE) and presented in cooperation with the U.S. Maritime Administration, features a diverse slate of presenters. Industry veterans will lead the program, which will feature senior maritime industry professionals in a full program of panel discussions, training sessions, and workshops. Find out how others are successfully managing today's critical port issues.
