

Jennifer Brandt Named Co-Chair of the PBA Children's Rights Committee

Thursday, July 22, 2021

PHILADELPHIA, July 22, 2021 — Cozen O'Connor is pleased to announce that Jennifer Brandt, chair of the firm's Family Law Group, has been named co-chair of the PBA Children's Rights Committee. The Children's Rights Committee studies questions and problems that affect children and monitors and/or makes recommendations concerning legislation relating to their interests. The committee informs lawyers on matters concerning children and develops programs for the legal profession to promote more effective advocacy on behalf of children in trial and appellate courts and implement such public education campaigns as are deemed appropriate.

Brandt has significant experience representing parties in divorce, custody, and support/alimony matters throughout both Pennsylvania and New Jersey. She assists parties with paternity issues, adoptions, and matters concerning assisted reproduction technology. She also negotiates prenuptial, post-nuptial, and cohabitation agreements and mediates and arbitrates family law cases. Jennifer represents a wide array of clients. In Pennsylvania, she regularly represents clients in Philadelphia, the Main Line, and local counties such as Montgomery, Chester, Delaware, Bucks, and Berks as well as others. In New Jersey, she assists parties throughout the state including Camden, Burlington, Gloucester, Mercer, Atlantic, and Cape May counties as well as others.
