

How One Florida Engineer Charged Others With Fraudulent Insurance Reports, Testimony

Tuesday, September 3, 2024

Joshua R. Goodman was quoted in L&S Insurance and Financial Services Inc.'s Home Insurance Guru blog, "How One Florida Engineer Charged Others With Fraudulent Insurance Reports, Testimony." The blog discusses Geroge Miles, a mechanical engineer based in Edgewater, Florida, who has filed formal complaints with the Florida Board of Professional Engineers against no fewer than 12 other engineers, alleging that all of them have committed fraud by making false assertions for plaintiffs in insurance claims litigation.

In the blog, Josh says, "A good attorney should be able to cross examine and impeach the witness."
