

More than half of employers to require COVID vaccines as omicron fears grow

Wednesday, December 1, 2021

John Ho spoke with CNBC about employers handling the COVID-19 vaccine mandate at work. “This continues to be such a quagmire for employers because of the legal challenges to the ETS,” said John. “Most of the clients I’m talking to are still in a wait-and-see,” he said. “If rates go back up, employers might get more aggressive,” he added. “Everyone is keeping their eye on the numbers.”
