

The Future of OSHA Under the Biden Administration

Location

Webinar

Date & Time

Start Date: 05/06/2021

Start Time: 1:00 pm

End Time: 2:00 pm EDT

The workplace safety world is currently consumed by rumors and speculation as to what is happening with OSHA's COVID-19 Emergency Temporary Standard recently "put on hold" by Secretary of Labor Marty Walsh. Join us for this webinar where we will provide insight and opinion as to what the future holds for OSHA under the Biden administration.

We will cover the following issues:

- Federal OSHA's COVID-19 Rulemaking: Is it going to happen and when?
- Should employers expect different COVID-19 rules for health care and general industry?
- Tips and Strategies for Dealing with COVID-19 enforcement actions, including citations requiring a respirator program for employees allowed to wear N-95 masks
- OSHA's new guidance on reporting illnesses and injuries related to mandatory vaccination
- What is happening with OSHA's Whistleblower Protection Program?
