

The State of Arbitration and Best Practices for Making It Work for Everyone

Location

Federal Bar Association Chicago Chapter
Burnham and Sullivan Conference Rooms
71 South Wacker Drive, 22nd Floor
Chicago, IL 60606

Date & Time

Start Date: 01/15/2025
Start Time: 1:40 p.m. CST
End Time: 2:40 p.m. CST

Anna Wermuth will moderate the panel “The State of Arbitration and Best Practices for Making It Work for Everyone” at the Chicago Chapter of the Federal Bar Association’s 2025 Annual Employment Law Seminar. Anna will guide a discussion on the latest developments in employment arbitration, focusing on crafting effective arbitration agreements, ensuring procedural fairness, and resolving disputes equitably. The panel will provide valuable insights and best practices for balancing the needs of employees and employers in arbitration.

To learn more, click here.

Sponsor

The Chicago Chapter of the Federal Bar Association

Share

Post

ATTORNEYS

Anna Wermuth

Vice Chair, Labor &
Employment Department

✉ awermuth@cozen.com

📞 \(312\) 474-7876474-7876)

RELATED PRACTICES

Labor & Employment

Labor Relations & Disputes

