Jennifer Cintron is a well-established attorney with a focus on subrogation. Jennifer has extensive experience handling insurance defense matters, managing aspects of the law office, caseloads, litigation, and case management duties.

Before joining the firm as a contract attorney in the subrogation department in 2024, Jennifer was an attorney for a Florida-based boutique law firm where she handled insurance defense matters.

She was a partner for nine years at a Florida-based community association and real estate law firm, as well as a civil litigation and community association law firm. Jennifer was also a senior associate at an Orlando-based civil trial practice firm, where she researched legal issues for senior counsel and handled discovery and case management duties.

Jennifer earned her J.D. in 2001 from Stetson University College of Law. She graduated from Florida State University in 1998 with a Bachelor of Arts in English and writing.
