Webinar

Date & Time

Start Date: 04/07/2021

Start Time: 01:45

End Time: 02:45 pm ET

Kathy Jaffari will present on a panel titled "A Global Perspective on Corporate Governance" at the Global Capital Markets & the US Securities Laws 2021 Seminar. Capital markets are adjusting to a wide range of evolving regulatory standards that affect the way in which offerings are conducted around the world. At the same time, issuers around the world are subject to changing accounting and corporate governance standards, while market participants navigate new ground with respect to investor expectations. On this panel, you will obtain insight on:

- Board diversity and refreshment in the spotlight
- Recent regulatory measures focused on corporate governance
- ESG demands and responses
- Managing the global governance landscape – the in-house perspective
