

Cozen O'Connor Named Pennsylvania Powerhouse by Law360

Monday, August 1, 2022

Law360 named Cozen O'Connor a Pennsylvania Powerhouse for 2022, one of only four firms to receive this distinction. According to Law360, law firms benefited from the reduced expenses and a lack in any slowdown in litigation or business transactions, including mergers and acquisitions. "There has been and still is a tremendous amount of capital in the legal market — it's been extremely strong across the board," said Cozen O'Connor Executive Chairman and CEO Michael J. Heller. "Pennsylvania has strength in eds & meds, big pharma, and a very strong middle market — the middle market has done extremely well over the last 24 months, and led to a number of big transactions over the past few months."
