

Pleas in Trump's Georgia Racketeering Case Show 'Dam Breaking'

Wednesday, October 25, 2023

Sarah Krissoff spoke with Bloomberg Law about a trio of guilty pleas over the past week from lawyers charged in the 2020 election racketeering case in Georgia that show prosecutors circling closer to Donald Trump and his inner sanctum of post-election advisers ahead of a trial. "There's a dam-breaking effect," Sarah said. "More significant than perhaps the testimony that these individuals may give against Trump is the fact that it may just signify a trend of others being willing to cooperate against him to save their own hides."
